

Questionnaire for students

How do you feel?		Agree 	Sometimes 	Disagree
1	I enjoy school
2	I get enough time to copy things down
3	My teacher often praises me
4	I get help with my spelling
5	My teacher thinks I am good at things
6	I am as important as everybody else in the class
7	My ideas are as good as everybody else's in the class
8	I get told off for bad spelling
9	I get told off for bad handwriting
10	I often avoid words I can't spell when I am writing
11	My work is often put on show where everyone can see it
12	I have time to finish my written work in class
13	I have time to write my homework down
14	I have the right equipment for lessons
15	I think I spend twice as much time on my homework as other people in my class

Coffield, M., Riddick, B., Barmby, P., & O'Neill, J. (2008). Dyslexia friendly primary schools: What can we learn from asking the pupils? In G. Reid, A. Fawcett, F. Manis, & L. Siegel (Eds.), The SAGE handbook of dyslexia (p. 368). London, England: SAGE.

Accessed from http://sk.sagepub.com/reference/hdbk_dyslexia/n17.xml

Note: This has been reproduced in Nicholson, T. & Dymock, S. (2015). The New Zealand dyslexia handbook (pp. 257-258). Wellington, NZ: NZCER

Accessing the curriculum		Usually 	Sometimes 	Never
16	I work with a partner who writes down my ideas
17	Teachers repeat instructions I have forgotten
18	Teachers read important information out to the whole class
19	Teachers take marks off if I make spelling mistakes
20	There are helpful things for me to use in class like bookmarks, word mats, a special dictionary etc.
21	Teachers give me writing frames/graphic organisers to help me with my writing
22	I use special software on the school computer to help me with my writing
23	I know that I don't have to read out loud in class unless I want to
24	I am doing the best school work I can
25	I am happy at school most of the time
26	I work a lot about school
27	I am proud of my work
28	One thing that really helps me is
29	One thing I really hate is

Coffield, M., Riddick, B., Barmby, P., & O'Neill, J. (2008). Dyslexia friendly primary schools: What can we learn from asking the pupils? In G. Reid, A. Fawcett, F. Manis, & L. Siegel (Eds.), The SAGE handbook of dyslexia (p. 368). London, England: SAGE.

Accessed from http://sk.sagepub.com/reference/hdbk_dyslexia/n17.xml

Note: This has been reproduced in Nicholson, T. & Dymock, S. (2015). The New Zealand dyslexia handbook (pp. 257-258). Wellington, NZ: NZCER